Small farm with 3 bedroom single storey house

Small farm with a single-storey house located 5 minutes from Messines.
With rudimentary features, this interesting single-storey house could be transformed into your dream home in a rural and very peaceful environment. It also has the advantage of being used for extra income as a rural tourism property.
It needs some work, but is in habitable conditions.
The ceilings are high, which makes it possible to make the most of it for beautifying the interior decoration and lightning.
The outdoor area has flat land with great potential for creating a beautiful garden with water features, outdoor leisure areas where you could include plants of different origins, as the climate and temperatures in the region are favorable. The existence of a well will provide support for irrigation...and much more, depending on the capacity, imagination and creativity of the buyer.
